Message from the Vice President

The year is officially half over . . . wow! I'd like to start by saying that I'm truly honored to be the Vice President of our chapter. A mentor once told me that to gain more work experience I should consider volunteering. Since earning my designation in 2015, I've attended two Leadership Summits and an Annual Meeting where I've learned valuable leadership skills and have had the opportunity to collaborate with leaders from other chapters. By wearing many hats, I've dabbled in many things such as event planning, social media marketing, and journalism. Having a CPCU designation shouldn't be limited to the letters behind our names but rather be used as an opportunity to grow personally and professionally. I encourage you to become more involved in our local chapter or any other organization that you're passionate about.

If you're not ready to volunteer, I encourage you to take advantage of the wealth of resources offered on the CPCU Society's website. I also challenge you to spread the word about our industry by bringing a friend to one of our luncheons and promoting the  website.

See you in August!

Run, Hide, Fight

At our May 24th luncheon Officer Gwynne Fritters with the Boca Raton Police Crime Prevention unit educated our members about active shooter preparedness.
